MEDIA RELEASE

June 30, 2017

The Racine County Sheriff's Office is continuing to investigate Lynn Rickard's disappearance and has continued to investigate information that is received by the public. We would like to remind the public to remain diligent and to carefully check their property. It is likely that Lynn Rickard is within a short distance of the Kansasville area.

Several large-scale searches have been conducted since Lynn Rickard's disappearance which included areas in Kenosha County. The Racine Sheriff's Office has utilized multiple Fire and EMS resources throughout the region. The search has also been supplemented by Wisconsin Emergency Management, the Civil Air Patrol, Wisconsin State Patrol and Flight for Life.

Sheriff Christopher Schmaling states that "Although scaled back, we remain diligent with our search and continue to investigate. My staff and I are hoping to find closure for the Rickard family over the holiday weekend."
