COUNTY EXECUTIVE'S JULY 12, 2017 LISTENING SESSION: COLONAL HEG HALL, TOWN OF NORWAY
Public Welcome

Racine – Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave announced his next listening session is scheduled for Wednesday, July 12, 2017 in the Town of Norway, Col. Heg Hall, 6419 Heg Park Road, Wind Lake. He will be available to meet county residents from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

Accompanying Delagrave in Wind Lake will be members of the County Executive's staff and members of various County Departments who will be on hand to explain the County services available in the Western Racine County.

"My intent is to maintain a strong County presence and efficient delivery of services in western Racine County," stated Delagrave. Residents interested in the future of the Western Racine County Service Center which is slated to be demolished in late 2017 or early 2018, are also encouraged to attend this listening session.

"The purpose of my listening sessions is to engage Racine County residents and share County news and information. It's important that residents know what County services are available to help them in their everyday lives," added Delagrave.

Delagrave's listening sessions are usually scheduled on the second Wednesday of the month, from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm, although these days are subject to change. The next listening session is scheduled for Wednesday, August 23, 2017 at the Village of Caledonia. Other elected officials and County Supervisors also attend these listening sessions, if their schedules permit.
