COUNTY EXECUTIVE'S NOVEMBER 8, 2017 LISTENING SESSION: TOWN OF BURLINGTON

Public Welcome and Encouraged to Attend

Burlington – Racine County Executive Jonathan Delagrave announced his next listening session will be held for the Town of Burlington on Wednesday, November 8, 2017 at the Western Racine County Service Center, 209 N. Main St. He will be available to meet county residents in the Eppers Room from 4:00 pm to 6:00 pm.

Accompanying Delagrave in Burlington will be Tyson Fettes, Register of Deeds and Town of Burlington board member. Members of the County Executive's staff and various County Departments will also be on hand to explain County services available in western Racine County and the County's 2018 budget.

"I intend to keep a strong County presence and efficient delivery of services in western Racine County," Delagrave said. "The purpose of my listening sessions is to engage Racine County residents, listen to their concerns, and share County news and information. It's important that residents know what County services are available to help them in their everyday lives," added Delagrave.

No appointments are necessary, and residents are encouraged to meet with the County Executive on any county-related topic.

Other elected officials and County Supervisors also attend these listening sessions, if their schedules permit. Delagrave's listening sessions are usually held on the second Wednesday of each month, from 4:00 pm - 6:00 pm, although these days are subject to change. The next listening session is scheduled for Wednesday, December 6, 2017 in the Village of Caledonia.
