COUNTY EXECUTIVE'S DECEMBER 6, 2017 LISTENING SESSION: CALEDONIA VILLAGE HALL

Public invited to ask questions, share concerns

Caledonia – County Executive Jonathan Delagrave will hold his next listening session on Wednesday, December 6, 2017, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. at the Caledonia Village Hall, 5043 Chester Lane.

County residents are invited to attend and speak with Delagrave about any county-related topic. No appointment is necessary. Accompanying Delagrave will be members of the County Executive's staff and members of various County departments who will be on hand to talk about County services and the County's 2018 budget.

"Listening sessions are a great opportunity for me to hear from Racine County residents about their ideas and concerns and to answer questions about County issues," Delagrave said. "Racine County residents should know that I am available and accessible to listen to what's important in their lives and to offer whatever support is possible through the County."

Delagrave holds listening sessions each month in municipalities throughout Racine County. Listening sessions are typically held on the second Wednesday of each month, from 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m., though these days are subject to change. County Supervisors and other elected officials also attend these listening sessions if their schedules permit.
