

Highway Permit Fees

Highway permit applicants must pay a fee to the County of Racine corresponding to each highway permit application See RACINE, WIS., COUNTY CODE OF ORDINANCES § 16.146 (b)(3)(2009).

If the County of Racine cannot permit the work described by the application then, the applicant will receive a fee refund. If the applicant modifies the application to comply with requirements and reapplies then, the applicant will not pay an additional fee.

Attach the fee payment to each facility permit application. Remit the permit fee in the form of a check or money order payable to: The County of Racine.

Fee List for Applications

Utility Infrastructure (Public or Private) in Highway: $250.00

Access to Highway: see table

Type of Access Service	Size of Facility Served	Fee
agricultural access	any size	$250.00
commercial access	building floor space 50,000 square feet or less	$500.00
commercial access	building floor space 50,001 square feet or more	$750.00
repair existing permitted access	any size	no fee
residential single-dwelling access	single family	$250.00
residential multi-dwelling access	fewer than 100 dwelling units	$500.00
residential multi-dwelling access	more than 100 dwelling units	$750.00
subdivision access	fewer than 100 dwelling units	$500.00
subdivision access	more than 100 dwelling units	$750.00

Structures in Highway: $250.00

Vegetation in Highway: $250.00