Racine County

The Racine County/RAMAC task force on reopening businesses -- called "Rebound Racine County" -- held its initial meeting today via teleconference. The task force includes a diverse mix of representatives from businesses, nonprofits, government and public health. The group is expected to produce recommendations by early May on how local businesses can reopen safely.

While Racine County parks are open, just a reminder to maintain social distancing of at least 6 feet and do not visit parks if you are sick. Your cooperation is vital to the success of our parks and the health of our communities.
