Central Racine County and City of Racine Health Department

Central Racine County Health Department reiterated today that mass gatherings, including large groups of people, large venue events, festivals and fairs, and in-person graduation ceremonies should be cancelled, postponed or rescheduled for now. "Central Racine County Health Department recommends that people continue to follow the Wisconsin guidance on large gatherings and graduation ceremonies," said Margaret Gesner, Health Officer for Central Racine County Health Department. "Racine County continues to experience a high number of COVID-19 cases so it is imperative that we work to decrease the spread of disease."

City of Racine

Many of us are looking for ways to help and give back during this time of need. That's why Racine County has created "Resilient Racine County" T-Shirts for purchase, with 100% of the profits going directly to organizations and businesses that address or are impacted by COVID-19. The T-shirts can be purchased on a new website the County launched yesterday, racinecounty.com/StateOfTheCounty.
