3 INFORMATION ONLY

4
5 WHEREAS, on November 7, 2021 at approximately 1:30 am, Tatyana Stovall was
6 booked into the Racine County Jail, posted her own bond, and released at approximately 1:50
7 am; and

8
9 WHEREAS, Ms. Stovall had several personal property items on her person which were 10 inventoried and logged into ProPhoenix; and

11
12 WHEREAS, Ms. Stovall signed the CMS Inmate Property Receipts printout upon her 13 release indicating that all of her personal property items were returned to her; and

14
15 WHEREAS, on November 8, 2021, Ms. Stovall filed a claim with Racine County in the 16 amount of $1,200,00 for missing property, specifically jewelry and an Apple watch; and

17
18 WHEREAS, Ms. Stovall claimed that none of her property was returned to her when she 19 was released; and

20
21 WHEREAS, the Racine County Sheriff's Office investigated the matter and, by reviewing 22 facility and body worn camera footage, found that Ms. Stovall's property was returned to her
23 when she was released from the Racine County Jail; and

24
25 WHEREAS, Stovall's property is clearly seen in a plastic bag which was handed to 26 Stovall at the release counter; and

27
28 WHEREAS, it should be noted that Stovall claims she was booked in with a necklace but 29 there was no necklace listed on her property inventory, though the other items she alleges were 30 not returned to her are listed; and

31
32 WHEREAS, Ms. Stovall did not voice any concerns about missing property to staff
33 during the release process; and

34
35 WHEREAS, the Corporation Counsel and the Sheriff's office have investigated this claim
36 and recommend denial.
