INFORMATION ONLY

WHEREAS, in June of 2022, the City of Racine was allotted $800,000 from Governor Evers to address the spike in city gun violence; and

3
4 WHEREAS, City leadership expressed a desire to expand our Credible Messenger
5 program by one position through a one-time revenue transfer of $50,000 to Racine County; and
6

7 WHEREAS, while this is only a one-year commitment it is the intent to continue this 8 position through applying for City ARPA allocations; and 9

10 WHEREAS, of the $800,000, approximately half of these dollars have been noticed for 11 funding availability (NOFA); and
12

13 WHEREAS, these community micro grants (not to exceed $75,000 per application) are a
14 mechanism in which Racine County can expand the efforts we have been championing for 15 years to reduce gun and gang violence; and 16

17 WHEREAS, Racine County has taken the lead in our Violence Crime Reduction Initiative
18 collaboration including developing the Crisis Management unit which will provide evidence-
19 based interventions during and after a violent crime to reduce retaliation and further violence;
20 and
21

22 WHEREAS, this multi-agency collaboration requires a unified training to ensure that 23 there is a congruency in our approaches; and 24

25 WHEREAS, after extensive research, the group decided upon the Urban Peace Institute
26 which has national recognition for their street outreach and community violence interruption
27 training; and
28

29 WHEREAS, Racine County has applied through the City NOFA and was awarded 30 $35,000 to coordinate the training for all personnel involved in this work; and 31

32 WHEREAS, this resolution is to accept the $50,000 and $35,000 allocations from the 33 City of Racine.
