APPOINTMENT TO THE VETERANS SERVICE COMMISSION

To the Honorable Members of the Racine County Board of Supervisors:

A vacancy exists on the Veterans Service Commission. To fill this vacancy, I hereby appoint, for a term to expire on December 31, 2026:

MATTHEW J. GORBATY, LTCOL, USMC (RETIRED), MBA
7 Sprucewood Court
Wind Point, WI 53402

Matthew J. Gorbaty is an exceptional candidate for this position based on his qualifications, experience, and dedication to serving veterans. Gorbaty's professional experience demonstrates his commitment to service and his ability to effectively manage and lead teams. Prior to his civilian career, Gorbaty served in the United States Marine Corps for over two decades, from September 1997 to October 2020. His positions in the Marine Corps highlight his strategic thinking, operational planning, and ability to lead and develop teams. As Deputy Assistant Chief of Staff, G-3 Operations, Gorbaty supervised the development of operational plans, conducted crisis action planning, and organized task-oriented teams for rapid deployment and execution of operations. His accomplishments in managing the Georgia Deployment Program and his collaboration with US Africa Command and USMC Service Headquarters demonstrate his expertise in program management, budgeting, and achieving cost-saving efficiencies.

Gorbaty's military education, including a Master's in Business Administration from the University of Maryland Global Campus, further enhances his qualifications for the Veterans Service Commission. He has also completed numerous professional development and technical courses, showcasing his commitment to continuous learning and professional growth. Based on his extensive experience, dedication to veterans, and proven leadership abilities, I believe Matthew J. Gorbaty is an ideal candidate for the appointment to the Veterans Service Commission.
